The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, October 7. 1707.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Octob. 6.

Ratisbon, Sept. 26.

ON Friday last there were earnest Debates concerning the raising of Money for the Chest of War. The Deputies of the Circle of Swabia said that the Elector of Mentz had written to the Circles of Franconia, Swabia, and of the Upper and Lower Rhine, that each of them should forthwith engage to furnish the 4th Part of 100000 Rixdollars; and that they were not unwilling to do it, in Case the Diet came to the desir'd Resolution in Relation to the Chest of War. This gave Occasion to some Complaints, that some Troops, which went to the Army six Weeks ago, had by their irregular Marches and needless Halts, done much Damage to the Towns near the Rhine; for which Damage, Satisfaction was required, pursuant to a former Resolution of the Diet, that had been approved by the Emperor. 'Twas represented in behalf of the King of Prussia, that seeing he had for a considerable time furnished 12000 Men, above his Contingent to the Army of the Empire, to act against the Enemy in the Netherlands; and had farther, to his great Inconvenience and Expence, sent an extraordinary Succour of Men to the Upper Rhine, therefore his Royal Majesty could not consent to the furnishing besides of any Money to the Chest of War: the rather because 'twas well known, that the Sub-Quotas in the Circle of the Lower Saxony could not be settled for want of regular Meetings of the States of that Circle: And 'twas added, that his Majesty could not agree to any ordinary or extraordinary Subsidy, much less to the Payment of them, so long as the common Affairs of the Circles were not regularly decided by all the States of each Circle. The Deputy of the Duke of Saxe-Eysenach inform'd the Diet, that the Territories of his Master were burden'd with Quartering the Troops of King Augustus, under General Scuylenburg, contrary to the Constitution of the Empire, and the Prerogative of the Princes; and he was seconded therein by several Deputies who were present.

From the Harlem Courant, dated October 8.

Ratisbon, Sept. 29. Yesterday there was another Debate concerning the Elector of Saxony's Troops that have taken Quarters in the Territories of Eysenach; and the Colleges of the Princes and States are resolv'd to make a Remonstrance to the Saxon Deputy. Endeavours were us'd on the side of his Electoral Highness to delay the Resolution of the Diet, and 'twas urg'd, that the Saxon Deputy having written twice to his Court on this Affair, and the Duke of Saxe-Eysenach having formally sent to King Augustus himself concerning it, they ought to wait for the Answer to those Messages, and the foresaid Deputy represented, that King Augustus had in a Letter of the 26th of August, signified to the Duke of Saxe-Eysenach, that his Majesty being desirous the 6000 Horse, which the Empire propos'd to take of him, should be ready and at Hand to go into their Service as soon as they should come to a Resolution upon it; he had sent them into the Territories of Eysenach, to be provided with Quarters and Subsistance by his Highness; assuring him, that as soon as the Diet had agreed to his Terms, they should move out of his Country. This Affair will require mature Deliberation, and a speedy Remedy, seeing his Highness of Eysenach will otherwise be oblig'd to recall home his own Quota of Troops and to seek the Assistance of Auxiliaries likewise; and will be hindred from contributing any thing to the Chest of War.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Octob. 8.

Ratisbon, Sept. 29. At length on Monday last so great a Progress was made in the Affair of establishing the Chest of War, that it was resolv'd by a Majority of Votes in the Diet, to establish it out of hand, and that in the next Session it shall be debated in what Manner; the Opinions being much divided as to that Point: For some are for having it settled according to the Resolution of the Diet of the 11th of March 1704, that is to say, that 2 Florins shall be allow'd for each Horseman, and 50 Creutzers for each Foot-Soldier. Others are for raising a certain Sum, namely, 200000 Rixdollars, by an equal Imposition on all the Circles. It will likewise be settled how, where, and to whom every District shall pay their Contingent, and whether it shall be for once only, or an annual Tax while the War lasts.

Long before any ſuch thing as a Venetian Strop was ever hatcht or thought on, were often publiſh'd the true Original Strops for ſetting Razors, Pen-Knives and Lancets to a moſt exquiſite fine Edge, and poliſhing them to an extraordinary Brightneſs, and had not theſe been known to anſwer the juſt Character given them through the whole Nation, the Venetian Author had never Aped 'em under a Sham Title, and had the Impudence to impoſe that Name upon thoſe he knows to be the true ones firſt publiſh'd in England, therefore beware of thoſe and other Counterfeits, the True ones being only Sold at John's Coffee-houſe in Swething's Alley near the Royal Exchange, at 1 s. each, with directions fix'd to 'em, as hath been often mention'd in the Gazette.
